I understand that participating in the Service Dog Academy training involves risks of personal injury and/or property damage to myself, to my dog, to members of my family and to accompanying friends. I assume all risks associated with participating in this training. I agree to comply with the instructions, rules and decisions of the Instructor(s) as it relates to myself or to my dog's ability to safely complete the training. I certify that my dog is current on all vaccinations, is parasite free and is able to perform disability mitigating tasks without physical harm to the dog. Additionally I certify that my dog is temperamentally sound for the rigors of service work and will not harm anyone.

I understand:

- The nature of the self training program and that I am solely responsible for the behavior of the dog I train.
- That participating in training sessions does not guarantee that my dog will be certified as a service dog nor be able to perform their trained tasks 100% of the time.
- That dogs are living breathing beings and as such may not alert to my medical condition.
- That I am 100% responsible for anything my dog does or does not do.
- That Service Dog Academy, Mary McNeight and their officers, directors, instructors, agents, employees and/or representatives responsible for the consequences of missed alerts.

- That my dog may be dropped from the training program if they display anxiety or aggression.

- That my dog may be dropped from the training program if the training or the use as a service dog may result in physical or mental harm to the dog.
- That a trainer's decision to drop the dog from the program is final and is not eligible for debate or reconsideration.
- That the state and county of the purchase of any Service Dog Academy product or service is Monroe County Illinois and not the state and county I reside in.
- That if my dog is dropped from the program I am not eligible for any reimbursement for time or money.
- That dogs are living beings and as such will not act perfectly in all situations.
- That dogs are living beings and are therefore subject to outside influences that may change their behavior. This may lead to the need for additional training at any point in their service life.
- That participation in this training program does not guarantee the mental or physical health status of the service dog being trained.
- That temperament tests and evaluations does not guarantee the mental or physical health status of the dog nor its ability to function as a service dog in the future.
- That although service dog usage has been shown to improve both mental and physical health status, that participation in this training program and/or use of a service dog does not guarantee improvement in the physical or mental status of the participant.
- That physical punishment in the training of my dog will not be tolerated and I will train using only humane methods.
- That if I use physical punishment in the training of my dog, I may be dropped from the program.
